

No cellular telephone should not be used aboard. Pax do not follow instruction now. Just think if we are explaining and emergency situations and they are on an important conversation, how soon will they get off the phone? When we ask them or when it is convient for them?